An employee may file a request that his/her workers' compensation claim be considered by a judge on an expedited basis (as quickly as possible). Such requests are infrequently granted and then only upon a showing of SIGNIFICANT hardship. The request must include a sworn affidavit attesting to the facts that establish financial hardship above and beyond that imposed by other workers' compensation cases.

Private or confidential data you supply on this form, and in communications or proceedings that occur because you file this form, will be used to process and resolve your workers' compensation dispute. The data will be used by department of labor and industry (department) staff who have authorized access to the data, and may be used for state investigations and statistics. You may refuse to supply the data, but if you refuse your claim may be delayed or denied, or the form may be returned to you. The data will be made part of the department's file for your claim and may be supplied to: anyone who has access to the file or the data by authorization or court order; the employer and insurer for your claim; the office of administrative hearings; the workers' compensation court of appeals; the departments of revenue and health; and the workers' compensation reinsurance association.
